

Cupid says . . .

“Let them bring candy!”

Although our policy is to never allow students to bring candy to school, we are continuing our alliance with the little man himself who insists that students be permitted to include candy as gifts with their Valentine’s Day cards. However, in deference to the many varied dietary restrictions we must uphold, children will not be permitted to eat this candy at school. Repeat, the eating of candy at school will not be permitted. Please remember, under no circumstances should you include candy with nuts or nut products, or include gifts that may present a choking hazard. Thank you for your attention to this matter, and to Cupid, we say, “Your wish is our command.”
